

Specials

Twice a week fifth graders have world language, physical education, art and music. They attend library once a week. The students also learn keyboarding during the first semester. In addition, technology applications such as PowerPoint, Excel, Inspiration and Photostory are integrated into the core subject areas. In fourth quarter, students participate in DARE.